REFERENCES

Barr, D, Bowen, K, Dekker, K, Protulipac, L, & Veldman, M. (1998). Sign / Sing Me a Song! Aurmentative Communication Support Services, Communication Intervention Gruce Building, Chedoke, HHSC, Box 2000 Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, L8N 3Z5. ($30.00).

Goossens', C., Crain, S., and Elder, P. (1992). Engineering the Classroom Environment for Interactive Symbolic Communication. Southeast Augmentative Communication Conference, Clinician Series, 2430 11th Avenue, North, Birmingham, AL 35234 ($40 + $4 p & h).

King-DeBaun, P. (1993). Storytime Supplement. Creative Communicating, P.O. Box 3358, Park City, UT 84060.

McCRacken, R. & McCracken, M. Stories, Songs, and Poetry to Teach Reading and Writing: Literacy through Language. Chicago: American Library Association.

Musselwhite, C. (1985). Songbook: Signs & Symbols for Children. Special Communications, 916 W. Castillo Dr., Litchfield Park, AZ 85340.

Musselwhite, C. (1996). Singing To Read: Songs For Favorite Children's Books. Special Communications, 916 W. Castillo Dr., Litchfield Park, AZ 85340.

Musselwhite, C. (1995). Sound Box Songs: Symbolized Songs For Vowels and Consonants. Special Communications, 916 W. Castillo Dr., Litchfield Park, AZ 85340.

Musselwhite, C. (1992). Symbol Songbook: Older Students Sing Out. Special Communications, 916 W. Castillo Dr., Litchfield Park, AZ 85340.

Musselwhite, C. & King-DeBaun, P. (1997). Emergent Literacy Success: Merging Technology and Whole Language For Students With Disahilities. Southeast Aug Comm Conf, address above / Creative Communicating, address above.

van Tatenhove, G. (2000). Singing-to-Talking with Minspeak. Gail van Tatenhove, 8322 Tangelo Tree Drive, Orlando, FL 32836-5437. <www.vantatenhove.com>

RESOURCES

www.aacintervention.com/
Website that supports augmentative and alternative communication, including music and nursery rhymes for students who use AAC.

www.nellieedgeresources.com/
Website offers many resources for supporting language and literacy through music for young children. See especially: freebies and articles such as "A Word About Books That Sing and Chant."

/www.kididdles.com/
Fabulous songsite! Includes the lyrics for songs alphabetically, by subject, by lyric, etc. Also has a Song of the Week, online bookstore and more.