Reading Aloud: Beyond Fun. Review strategies for both shared reading and guided reading for students who use AAC. Topics include: the importance of repeated readings, story retelling, and supporting early reading comprehension.

Singing to Learn: Using Music to Jump-Start Language & Literacy. Learn strategies for supporting reading (phonics, story retelling), writing, and content learning through music, with the support of songboards, choice boards, and communication devices.

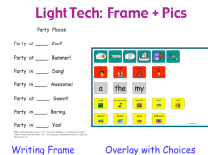

Sample 8-Location Script

Topic Setting: More Bang for the Buck! This DVD offers ideas for supporting both generic and specific topic setting, using light tech or high tech communication approaches. Strategies for students with significant cognitive delays are shared, through use of collections.

Writing Tips: Vocabulary Sets, Poetry, and MORE! This DVD starts with an overview of vocabulary sets for beginning writers. Specific strategies are offered, such as maximizing vocabulary, brainstorming and modeling before writing, and using poetry to support both learning and a feeling of success.
