What Do Fire Fighters Wear? (Core Story)

What do fire fighters wear?
How about bikinis? No way!
How about jackets? That's okay.
What do fire fighters wear?
How about short shorts? No way!
How about long pants? That's okay.
What do fire fighters wear?
How about sandals? No way!
How about black boots? That's okay.
What do fire fighters wear?
How about a bowl? No way!
How about a plastic helmet? That's okay.
Running to the fire truck. Hurray!

Special Features:

- Repeated lines: What do fire fighters wear?
- Repeated comments: No way! That's okay.
- Carrier phrase with slot-filler: How about _____?

All About Fire Trucks (Noun)

Fire trucks are red . . . or yellow.
But NOT purple! That's just silly.
Fire trucks have ladders and hoses.
But NOT hula hoops! That's just silly.
Fire trucks have lights and sirens.
But NOT TVs! That's just silly.
Fire trucks have wheels and dogs.
But NOT cats! That's really silly.

Special Features:

- Repeated comment: That's just silly.
- Carrier phrase with slot filler: Fire trucks are _____ and _____.
- Carrier phrase with slot filler: But NOT _____!

Fire Alarm (Action)

I hear the fire alarm. It's loud.
Don't worry. It's okay.
Drop your stuff.
Get in line.
Don't worry. It's okay.
Keep quiet.
Follow your teacher.
Don't worry. It's okay.
Go outside.
Cross the street.
Don't worry. It's okay.
Wait for the bell.
Go back inside.
Don't worry. It's okay.
Back to work.
See? It's okay!

Special Features: Repeated lines:

- Don't worry.
- It's okay.

Note: This serves as a 'social story' to support our students who become very anxious when there is a fire drill!

Fighting Fires? (Action)

Hear the siren. Ding ding!
Go down the pole. Whoo hoo!
Get dressed. Zip zip!
Jump in the truck. Boing boing!
Drive to the fire. Vroom vroom!
Grab the hose. Whoosh whoosh!
Put out the fire. All right!

Special Feature: Motivating sound effects.
